

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law. I get bothered by people calling or mailing me all of the time asking me for money. I am trying to cut down waste and curb my consumption for the betterment of the environment and to have a clutter-free home.